I have been enjoying this coloring book for several weeks. It is filled with 24 designs that whirl and twirl and deliver on the promise of swirls. Along with the swirls, there are many flowers, some peacocks, a cat, an owl, and much more. The designs are detailed but not overly intricate or with small details that are hard to color. This is my first coloring book by artist Elena Bogdanovych; however, I will be looking for her work again in the future. All of the designs stop well before the binding. The designs are printed on one side of thin white non-perforated paper that is typical for books published by CreateSpace. The binding is glued rather than sewn but there is plenty of room for you to cut a page out if you choose to do so. I was able to easily get the book to lay flat. All of the designs either finish off all of the elements in the design with a margin of blank space on all sides or have a framing line around the outside. I really like this as it gives me a natural stopping point, saves ink/pencil, and also gives me a more finished looking project when I color. All of my markers bleed through and my gel pens either bleed through or leave a distinct shadow on the back of the page. My coloring pencils work well with the paper and perform as expected for their lead type (soft/hard) though the hard pencils sometimes leave an indent on the back of the page if I use them with a heavier hand than normal. I will use a piece of card stock or heavy paper behind the page I am working on so I don't ruin the following page with leaking ink or mar it with pressure marks. In the comments section below, I will list the coloring medium I used to test this coloring book. While I did not use Raffine pencils to test the book, I did use them to color the cat design while I was testing the pencils.

As you can see I own many coloring books! But this one is by far my favorite, I can see myself coloring every page. I have even thought about getting a second one just to experience different markers. Pens, pencils....

I purchased this adult coloring book for my Mom for Mother's Day. She is in her 60's and I wasn't sure she would find a book that had really tiny details and hard for her to color the tiny lines. So I decided on this book. This coloring book has a little larger designs that are not so busy. They still have detail and are very pretty and can be seen for my pictures. I also decided on this book because the pages are not printed on both sides. I love this because whether she chooses to use markers, pencils, or pens there is no worry about the colors bleeding on to the next page. Other coloring books are printed on both sides and I have had experience with that happening. I think the higher quality books are printed with only one print on each page. I really think she is going to enjoy coloring with this book.I apologize for my pictures being upside down, I am not sure how to flip them.

This is one of my favorite books so far. It's full of varying fun designs. The pages are an okay weight and one sided. I'm attaching some pictures of what you can find inside including one page that I colored using Prismacolor Colored Pencils and then a picture of the backside of that picture so you can see how much shows through.

As a colorist, I find that there is something extra-fun and relaxing while working on "swirls" in designs. If you've done it before, you know how much fun it is to create with those patterns. If you haven't tried it, start with this book. If you're an old hand at it, this book will be your next go-to when you need some relaxation time that will help you meditate. Really recommended!

Heavy paper. Lovely designs. All sheets are white and designs do not fill page but fun to color

This is my first adult coloring book and I love it!!! I have already colored 3 pictures so far and can't wait to do more. These are really nice pictures - mostly flowers which I love!!! All of the pictures are all nice so you can't go wrong with buying this book if you like flowers.

Nice book, good paper quality, fun designs, designs are well proportioned - no areas too large or too small. I'm OCD, and have literally colored for hours! Very relaxing.a must buy for newbies, and highly suggested for the seasoned coloring buff. I would buy again for gift, nice price.
