Customer Reviews

I am a poor college student going to a kauai, so I thought this book would be a good investment. I bought it thinking that it would talk about small, cheap restaurants/hotels that still got great reviews, as well as a hopefully long list of things to do on a budget. Instead, it was more like anything you could find by googling 'restaurants or hotels in kauai'. Granted, the tips on things to go see was helpful, but there were very few, and I feel like a guide book that tells you to buy a different guide book isn't really worth the effort. Its also VERY short.

There is only one value to this book...he recommends the best guide book. The Ultimate Guidebook has a book for each island. The author refers to this book repeatedly, so obviously that's the book to spend your money on, not this one. I took a chance because it was cheap, still not worth it. I have The Ultimate Guidebook for each island, and it truly is the best guidebook.

This is an excellent take along travel book. Great tips and things to do off the beaten path. Many things to do and see without spending a lot of money. An excellent book to take along and have your dream vacation and adventure.

Not worth the money. Most of the tricks you can discover on your own or by talking with locals once you get there.

Good tips / tricks for people who haven't traveled much. But for a seasoned traveler there were not as many. We did pick up a few good tips & websites to check out though. Thanks!

There were a few good points, but it took me about 30 minutes to read the whole thing, and most of the information was opinion or what could easily be found on a basic search. Eh.

The book was a fun read. It had a lot of little tips I hadn't thought of and used a lot of the ideas to save some money for my trip to Hawaii. It was short and to the point and I liked the style of writing. Good book!

Begin saving on your Hawaiian vacation by not buying this book. A complete waste of money. You will be immeasurably better off if you spend twice as much and buy The Ultimate Kauai Guidebook: Kauai Revealed. I've purchased this book several times, for myself and as a gift for family and friends who were planning trips to Kauai. It is THE guidebook to Kauai. If it were possible to demand my money back for this farce, I would.
