The Bahamas Cruising Guide: With The Turks And Caicos Islands

Synopsis

Whether just beginning to think about cruising in the Bahamas, actively planning a trip, or on the water with the islands in sight, this updated edition of a classic resource will fulfill any cruising boater's wish list. Clear, precise advice is presented in a practical spiral format. This comprehensive reference includes full shore-side information as well as official British Admiralty charts, aerial photographs, and waypoints. Also provided are useful Blue Pages for navigation, seamanship, and preparation; Green Pages for history, wildlife, fishing, and diving; and Buff Pages for information about the Bahamian government and infrastructure-from entry formalities to holidays and special events. The especially handy Yellow Pages supply detailed port-of-call information, from marinas and restaurants to banks and telephones.
