Denise Gee is the author of Southern Cocktails and Porch Parties. She lives in Dallas, Texas. Robert M. Peacock is a Dallas-based photographer.

Found this same book at a novelty Texas store in an area mall for $24.95. Was thrilled to find it on for a much cheaper price. Bought this as a gift for a family in Alabama who hosted my daughter for 4 nights. They commented on how much they loved the book & couldn't wait to use it. I appreciated that it was paperback, but substantial and a nice size for a gift.

Love it! Great receipes, photographs, and the Texas history that ties them together. You will not be disappointed!

Good cookbook. Lots of great from different regions of the state.

I am a collector of Texas cookbooks and this is a good one. Although I haven't tried all the recipes they are very easy to understand for even the beginner.

If you're from Texas (or even from New Jersey), you'll love flipping through the pages of this book, looking for something sweet to prepare!

Wish I had looked through before giving as a gift - I would have kept it!!! My daughter-in-law and my son both loved receiving it.

Great recipes - wonderful pictures - easy directions - makes me want to cook every time I open it! I highly recommend this book!
