Harboring Hope ~ Brides of Virtue Book #4 Hope Sutton yearned for adventure -- for a life more exciting and satisfying than her boring existence in Pennsylvania. But nothing could have prepared her for the unexpected twist her life would take on the train ride to Whistle Stop, Wyoming. Luke ÆœBear Boone was a recluse Æœ choosing to live a secluded life in the woods, far away from the greed and destruction that had cost him everything. But when a young woman is left for dead in a train accident, Luke has no choice but to open his heart. Marrying Mercy ~ Brides of Virtue Book #5 Mercy Lawson was the belle of the ball Æœ until the night her disapproving father locked her away and set fire to her bedroom. Now, disfigured and frightened, Mercy knows the only way she can escape her dangerous father and start a new life for herself, is to marry a stranger. But sometimes God has other plans. Cole Boone couldn't risk another run in with the law. His reputation as a reckless cowboy was well known in Whistle Stop and Sheriff McCabe was just waiting for him to slip up. But nothing, not even the threat of jail time, would stop Cole from protecting the woman he couldn't resist. Choosing Charity ~ Brides of Virtue Book #6 Charity Miller was orphaned and widowed in a single moment. Now, alone and expecting a child, Charity had no choice but to pay a woman in Whistle Stop to find her a suitable husband. But how could she ignore the handsome handy man that had captured her heart? Adam DeLane came to Whistle Stop, Wyoming to claim the love of his life. But when he found she had given her heart and her hand to another man, Adam was left heartbroken. He knew he would love again, but he didn't plan on falling in love so soon Æœ especially not with a woman he was forbidden to see.

Customer Reviews

I love Mail Order Bride stories and boxed sets. This box set is by Jill Maguire and deals with three women who are on their own and must do something to survive in the West. Hope is headed to Whistle Stop with her father to marry when the train they are on derails. Her father is killed and Hope has amnesia. She is rescued by Luke. Mercy is a lovely lady with an over protective father. She is caught in a fire and suffers scars on her face and body. She fears her father started the fire, so she runs away to Whistle Stop to find a husband. She meets Cole who is a retired outlaw and he shelters her. Charity, has lost her husband to Indians. She is pregnant and has agreed to be a mail order bride. These books are stand alone books, but they tie in with each other very nicely. I could not put the books down.

Immensely enjoyed reading these stories of faith love and happiness found, as I'm sure you will also, highly recommend this collection!

I loved how the stories of volume 1 (the first 3 books of the series) were intertwined and characters appeared in subsequent books. Even though Hope, the first character of this volume, was introduced in the last volume, she did not interact with the previous characters from the first volume. I found that disappointing as I didn't get to see the continuation of the previous characters' stories.

that I had come to enjoy. All 3 books in this collection seemed rushed and disconnected. Very disappointing.

I enjoyed all the stories that were all. About the brides in whisle stop. Each story was different but were all connected about the briefs to be Thoroughly enjoyed these books and loved how they all had a connection. Very easy and quick reading. Loved the fact that there was no foul language or sex to make a good story.

This was an enjoyable read. They are pretty short and would have been nice to be a little longer, but they were nice stories.

I bought this series because I enjoyed Jill's last series so much and I was not disappointed. Great writing Jill.

Great stories
