Very upbeat and humorous. Could have been a dull and boring courtroom saga but was not.

"The Trial of My Life" is an easy, must read account of an outstanding individual. The light hearted account of many trying events offers insight into the realities of our justice system. As a law enforcement officer, I appreciate Judge Valentino's account of the judicial side of our criminal justice system. Thank you, Judge Valentino, for sharing your memories!

I absolutely loved the book. A+. It was a real eye opener as far as the court system. The book was very entertaining to read and I loved the structure of how it was written. Being a next door neighbor to the Valentino's in the 80's, I totally enjoyed hearing about Joe and his family and I can say that every word about this wonderful family is true.

Such an enjoyable book giving the reader some insight into the life of an amazing man. I've had the pleasure of meeting Judge Valentino as an intern in his court room for a paralegal class many years ago and then, more recently working with one of his sons I found the format of the book an interesting and enjoyable read and recommend the book.

Excellent, humorous and interesting!!!!

My whole life, I was told to never judge a book by its cover. How am I expected to not judge when I see such a handsome and great man on the cover?! This is an amazing book with hilarious anecdotes and heartwarming stories of a long and important career.

Great read, the judge related many of his interesting and sometimes humorous experiences.

The book was a good attempt in reviewing the life ( up to date) of a most unique man. Those who know him will nod in agreement. Those who don't, will get an introduction. It's so nice to read about a Good life lived be a Great Man.
