John N. Gardner brings unparalleled experience to students as an author. The recipient of his institution's highest award for teaching excellence, John has over forty years of experience directing and teaching in the most widely emulated first-year seminar in the country, the University 101 course at the University of South Carolina (USC), Columbia. John is universally recognized as one of the country's leading educators for his role in initiating and orchestrating an international reform movement to improve the beginning college experience, a concept he coined as "the first-year experience." He is the founding executive director of the National Resource Center for The First-Year Experience and Students in Transition at USC, as well as the Policy Center on the First Year of College and the John N. Gardner Institute for Excellence in Undergraduate Education (www.jngi.org), both based in Brevard, N.C. Betsy O. Barefoot is a writer, researcher, and teacher whose special area of scholarship is the first-year seminar. During her tenure at USC from 1988 to 1999, she served as co-director for research and publications at the National Resource Center for The First-Year Experience and Students in Transition. She also taught University 101 and graduate courses on the first-year experience and the principles of college teaching. She conducts first-year seminar faculty training workshops around the world and is frequently called on to evaluate first-year seminar outcomes. Betsy is co-director and senior scholar in the Policy Center on the First Year of College and Vice President of the John N. Gardner Institute for Excellence in Undergraduate Education both in Brevard, N.C. In her Policy Center role she led a major national research project to identify institutions of excellence in the first college year. She currently works with both two- and four-year campuses in evaluating all components of the first year."

I use this to teach a College Success Skills class - it has interesting activities and many of the information is still current despite the edition. Will continue to use as long as I can. :)

We ordered this book for my daughter in college. She needed the 4th edition which is what we thought we were ordering. But when we received it, it was the 2nd edition so it is useless to her. I don't know if we just didn't see it correctly or just where the mix up was?? Disappointing!

Has a lot of information I already know..I wish it had more information in it that I could've learned! Only got it because it was required for a class I took a year ago...

Book was in good shape for the price. Would buy again price is good however my teacher doesnt even use the book. well there goes 11 bucks i could have saved :P

you should consider selling your books here they give you a fair price and exrllent customer service i will do business here again

I bought this product at a reasonable price and got it in about two weeks. It is a good copy by he some writing and highlighting in it. Overall, my expectations were met and I'm satisfied with the product .

Pleased with how fast and how useful my product is. Will definately use it often, and well worth my money.
