This Siddur has been around for so long it seems silly to write a review. The URJ has recently released the new Mishkan Tefillah and our Temple despises it because it attempts to take all gender references out of its narrative and resultantly the language reads and sounds absurd. We also have the older Union Prayer book which is a favorite of the older senior generation. I find it mind-numbingly boring and not relevant. The Gates of Prayer is used as a happy medium at times in our Temple but it does leave much to be desired. To remedy this situation I have recently done what many other congregations are doing and started a Siddur project specifically for the development of a Siddur that will be tailored for our community. This seems to be a trend nowadays and it is quite satisfying in its development. I am using the Gates of Prayer as a guide but adding transliterations to all the prayers, more relevant translations, a clearer textual lay out, notations and kavanot throughout. If this is not a project your Temple is wanting to undertake then I would recommend the GOP Siddur as an alternative to Mishkan Tefillah and the Union Prayer Book.

Love it!!! This book is amazing. Great service from the seller. Item was just as they said. Service was fast. A great purchase. Have carried this book with me every day since receiving it.

books were received as scheduled for delivery; the packaging was real nice; the books are a great addition to my hebrew library and spiritual improvement of the history of my people. I am seeking more understanding of the hebrew's history and spirituality.

I enjoy starting and ending my day in prayer.

I just wanted a copy of the old one.

Getting the Siddurim helped my synagogue! We just started video streaming of our Shabbat Services. We needed the Siddurim for those who could not attend. Now with 's help, members are able to purchase Siddurim and participate in the Services though not being present at the Synagogue. Bless you!

Wonderful book. I recently attended a Shabbat service and wanted one for my very own. There is a special prayer that touched my heart and I had to have this book for the payer and further study.

Excellent gender inclusive reading,Clear print, all the prayers needed for my upcoming Bat-mitzvahOnly problem was, I paid for expedite delivery, came 8 days later.
