Customer Reviews

This is the second book in the series and I love the way it picked right up where the first stopped. You can tell in most story lines where one book stops and the next begins there is an amount of time between them. I love that these pick right up with the last. I hope the next is the same. If it is the author had one great story to tell!

As are characters delve into the unknown of another spine tingling adventure that takes them off to farther places, they truly do find out just how dangerous magic can be, excellent take off for our second story.

Second good entertaining read. Blooming magical strength and a fighters experience make a great story. Thanks for the adventure. On to the next in the series.

Looking forward to the next book. Good balance of character development and action. Suitable for all age of readers. Like writer's style.

An Excellent Book, Editing is not spot on but not too bad, I enjoyed this adventure

Good read for me. A lot of action. Have read the previous books & will read the next one out.

The books in the series are better read as a series but the character development is solid.

Very good book would recommend it!!
