Kyoto Guidebook

Synopsis

Everything You Need For A Fun-filled, Memorable and Stress-free Kyoto Travel is Here! Are you looking forward to an amazing journey to Kyoto that is worth the cost of tickets and hotels? Do you want to have great memories of trip, whether alone, with friends, family members or loved ones? Our Kyoto e-Guidebook can help. Kyoto e-Guidebook has all the information you need to make your Kyoto trip fun, memorable and stress-free. For example, The Photo Scavenger Hunt section provides a chance for unique, exciting photos. The Special Events and Festivals section provides information on seasonal events. Model Plans can help you choose your perfect plan day by day. The Japanese History 101 and Historical Figures in Kyoto sections give brief background information about history and make sightseeing more meaningful. Information on 118 sightseeing spots and 153 shops/restaurants. These benefits are not usually found in other guidebooks. This guidebook is unique because it was written by a Kyoto local who lives in, loves, and wants everyone to enjoy Kyoto. In addition, this guidebook provides many hints to make your Kyoto travel STRESS-FREE. For example, almost every guidebook (including Japanese ones) recommends using the City Bus for transportation. It is true that a 500 yen One Day Pass sounds attractive. However, what if you have to spend 20 minutes waiting in the burning sunlight but can't even get on the next bus because it is full? This guidebook, on the other hand, provides information on how to avoid situations like this. Furthermore, this guidebook is updated every 6 months or so, which secures the latest information. If you like these benefits and would like to make your Kyoto trip one-of-a-kind, get Kyoto e-Guidebook now! UPDATE: February 4th 2015 In response to some feedback, maps have been separated and cleaned up for better visibility. Information updated. UPDATED: January 2016 UPDATED: July 2016

Customer Reviews

I wish every city had a guidebook like this. All information clearly summarized and user friendly. The guidebook shows you good tips for expensive or inexpensive tours. And if you have any questions the writer still answer you promptly!!!! I'm going to Kyoto for flowering cherry trees and I look forward to use all this tips soon!! Cristina

The maps could be much better, as they are very small (on an iPhone 6) and don't stay sharp when you magnify them. This is my first book I buy on Kindle, so I don't know if all are like this, but I kind of expected guide books to be updated (like a website) so it's a shame some of the information is outdated already (author keeps referring to price changes eff Apr14). Contentwise I enjoyed reading it and hopefully when we're in Kyoto next week, we'll be using it even more!

Visited Japan in 2015 including three days in Kyoto - guidebook proved very useful and we visited many places not seen during previous visit in 2005

Information is so basic it is almost unusable. Too many spelling errors, and the romaji is mostly incorrect. Last the basic history section is so abbreviated, it is pretty useless and would be best left out altogether.

I feel that this book is going to be great for my forthcoming visit. Together with the blog which Kesaku Onishi writes it provides a lot of good information.

Very Helpful...Thanks!...Enjoyed the trip to Kyoto...All the more!

Congratulation and thanks to the writer. It's a very useful and helpful book with countless valuable tips for Kyoto. I love it :-))I've also read the other reviews and totally agree with them.
