This book offers the practice of walking the talk - living fully as a spiritual being on this planet. It offers practical crystal layouts to anchor the higher bodies (energy systems) into the physical, how to keep them anchored along with the related gemstones. It ties in the relevance of the ancient civilisations, galactical realms, our anchor with the Earth along with our spiritual masters. This book follows on, yet can stand alone, from Katrina's trilogy :Crystal Enlightenment: The Transforming

Properties of Crystals and Healing Stones (Crystal Trilogy, Vol. 1)
Crystal Healing: Applying the Therapeutic Properties of Crystals and Stones (Crystal Trilogy, Vol. 2)
The Crystalline Transmission: A Synthesis of Light (Crystal Trilogy, Vol. 3)

This is an excellent book for crystal healers. Katrina Raphaell has written wonderful crystal books and this recent one shows ever deepening insights into ways of working to assist us to function on a higher level by focusing on the 5 Robes of Light or different rays which are related to the higher bodies. Katrina shows stones connected with the magenta ray to assist the higher mind state. She also presents ways with rays to balance the high heart and the high physical body. I have come across the knowledge about the eyes of the knees and eyes of the feet before so this all made sense to me and I was glad this has been taken into crystal healing. I really enjoyed her writing and found her lay outs clear and easy to follow. I thoroughly recommend this book!

All Katrina's books are very special, they offer amazing information about how to use crystals for one's soul enlightenment and body healing: Crystalline Illumination is the ultimate bible about crystals' layout, rare teaching difficult to find anywhere else.

Once more Katrina Raphaell give us an amazing crystalline gift with her book. Katrina is a master with the crystal kingdom and I recommend it a lot all her books!

She is very insightful and has great intuition and empathy towards the living energy that is contained or affected by crystals. I have read quite extensively on crystals and find her four part book series to be among the most useful.

The 'Crystalline Trilogy' books are three of the best books on crystals I've ever read. Contains layouts and chakra information plus the use of individual crystals and the importance of combinations of crystals. Every time you read them new information pours out. These books have information on all the well know crystals and are a wonderful resource for crystal information. You need these for basic information. Many layouts which are complex as well as simple ones to use.'The Crystalline Illumination: The Way of the Five Bodies' introduces the use of many well known as well as many newer and hard to get as well as some very expensive crystals. It's so interesting to read, I'm glad I purchased it. I will not invest in buying more crystals but I appreciate the information. Fascinating to read.

I already have all her books, This one was her last one and it is better than I expect. If you purchase this book, you would not be regret, This book can offer humans a way to connect with high spiritual beings and their own spiritual being.

Katrina is the most authentic authority on crystal healing, I've found, and I have been studying, and using crystals therapeutically since the 80's. There is a lot of information there, She always resonates, as accurate to me.
